We request that all those who use our Shul be up to date with their measles vaccinations. If you have not been vaccinated, please take care of that prior to coming into Shul. Anyone who has contracted measles should refrain from coming to Shul for 3 weeks as mandated by the local Health Department.

Mazel Tov to Eva and Reb Mechoel Weinstein on Jonathon Zusha's marriage this Sunday to Yehudis Goldfarb in Yerushalayim.

This week Shalosh Seudos is sponsored by Chana and Yossef Cattan to commemorate the Yahrzheits of Chana's Father, Yisrael ben Yichya and Yossef's Mother, Bahira bat Sarah.

Anyone wishing to sponsor a Shalosh Seudos should speak to Leonard Mann, Rob Goldfarb or Gerald From.

Avos U'Banim sponsored this week anonymously.

Anyone wishing to sponsor an evening of Avos U'Banim should check the sign in sheet on the bulletin board or speak to Yaakov Grunstein or Leonard Mann.

Please see the flier on the bulletin board about the Bnos Melaveh Malkah this Motzaei Shabbos. It is their main fund raiser for their programming.

Bais Torah will be having a scholar in residence, Dr. Herman Presby this Shabbos. As part of this, he will be speaking at 8 PM Motzaei Shabbos on Poseach Es Yadecha. The weekend is sponsored by Mrs. Kate Tannenbaum, in memory of her husband Fred. See the bulletin board for further details.

Next weekend, we will be commemorating 2 significant historical events: a) The 80th anniversary of Kristallnacht b) The 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1. Public commemorations of these events will take place in Rockland. We urge everyone to make every effort to attend one

Presently, we are gearing up for the refurbishing of the Shul: a new floor, new chairs and new lighting. Please contribute to the best of your ability.
